A. K. Chesterton M.C.

The Cause of our Present Woes: Accident or Conspiracy?

Is there a Conspiracy in the World? Quite clearly there is. I speak not of the short-term, small conspiracies for small, short-term gains indulged by all and sundry and which are part and parcel of human nature. Nor do I speak of the famous conspiracies, so much written about in the alternative media, such as the South Sea Bubble and numerous financial scandals ad nauseum, the assassination of J.F. Kennedy, 9/11, Watergate, the sinking of the Lusitania or Titanic, the Murdoch hacking controversy, the invasion of Iraq over its mythical weapons of mass destruction, the recent upheavals in the former Communist bloc - the latest of which is the Kiev uprising in 2014, the Arab Spring, almost all international wars including WWI and WWII and their key events, or the various paedophile cover ups among senior politicians and establishment figures, etc, etc, etc. These are after all merely peripheral parts of what I'm talking about here, and I'm talking about THE Conspiracy. Definite article, capital C. It is a long-term, inter-generational conspiracy for very, very long-term, aims, worldwide, all encompassing, multi-faceted and as far as the general public are concerned - secret. It is also Jewish. And here lies the fear. One doesn't have to be an inhabitant of Gaza to be afraid of Jewish power.

"I'm not anti-semitic. Some of my best friends are Arabs."* -
Jean-Marie Le Pen

Anti-semitism, which is used by most commentators to mean 'anti-Jewishness', is a pejorative term which is levelled against anyone the Jews disapprove of, and could be more accurately termed 'knowing or expressing things about the Jews that the Jews rather you didn't know or express', or put simply 'knowing about the Jews'. It is also an adjective that can be applied to every serious thinker worth his salt, from Voltaire, Shakespeare and Goethe, to the Nobel Prize winning Mathematician John Nash and the best ever Chess Grandmaster Bobby Fischer. Such is the extent of correlation between intelligent creativity and this trait that establishment commentators are reluctantly coming to view 'antisemitism' as 'the darker side of genius', (for instance see Albert S. Lindemann, 'Religion'. Vol 18, Issue 2, 1988). For his deep analysis of political events AK Chesterton was very definitely a genius.

"Seldom does appearance reflect the inner reality" -
AK Chesterton 'Facing the Abyss'

As Nationalists, as Identarians we see farther and deeper than other men, and whereas others sometimes see slithers or fragments of the broad canvas, it is only we who see the full picture, in all its horrific, grisly detail, who fully understand what is going on, who understand that the Conspiracy exists, who understand how it functions, and who furthermore comprehend the full range of the weapons it employs. We understand the who, the how and the why. It is we who see its aims and its end product, it is we who dare to face the truth, it is we who dare to face the abyss. And because we are courageous, conscientious and care about our people we try to warn our people, and try to warn them regardless of the consequences the Conspirators will wreak on us. And because we have a sense of justice and fair play we also try to warn other peoples too.

"Today, moral courage, the readiness to take a determined stand in the face of general displeasure, the resolve at all costs to be a man in his own right, and not simply a cog in a Party Machine - these attributes are rarely encountered and even more rarely for long maintained." - AK Chesterton 'Facing the Abyss'

Our predictions, prophesies and warnings, despite being labelled extremist scaremongering, have been proved correct again and again and again, but like those of Cassandra they have remained largely unheeded. It is the very scale of the Conspiracy, the grand ghastly design of it all that staggers the senses and makes it so hard for many to grasp.

But really, when one understands group dynamics and ethnic cohesiveness and then stands back and gazes at the vast scope of history it is not such an incomprehensible thing. (See Kevin MacDonald 'The Culture of Critique'.) Let me put it in basic terms.

The Jews own and control everything worth owning or controlling, and for a neutral observer to claim that they got to this position without some sort of conspiracy would be idiocy on the observer's part. And now that the Jews have all this power, for them not to use some sort of conspiracy to maintain their position would be foolishness on their part. In fact the Jews are now so obviously powerful that a joke is now going the rounds that the only country in the world over which the Jews do not possess complete and absolute control is... Israel.

Put plain and simple - there has always been, there is, and always will be, (as long as there are Jews), a macro-managed international Jewish Conspiracy. And it is this, and this only, which can be termed 'The Conspiracy'.

All ethnic groups, all religious groups whether they be Mormons, Red Indians, Scientologists, Jehovahs Witnesses, Gypsies, Abaadi Muslims, the Druze, the Yezidis, Parsees - in fact any group that realises that it is a group - will, if it has any sense, do all it can to further its own interests, to benefit its own group, and may go about this in a secret manner, and all humanity commonly accepts this as being 'in the nature of things, but rarely, even if the group lives as a minority among other groups as the examples mentioned do, will they attempt to make themselves strong vis a vis other groups by consciously setting out to undermine other groups. This marks the Jews out as different. Such a strategy may make very good Darwinian sense, but the victim group understandably tends to resent such activity, regarding it as somehow underhand, unfair and in some way illegal.

In the greater scheme of things though, nothing is illegal. A world famous military leader once said that the killer of one person would be labelled a murderer, but a killer of thousands would be hailed as a conqueror. And Napoleon knew what he was talking about.

The future predictions of those who understand the Conspiracy keep on being realised. Their prophesies prove true. To those 'not in the know' this seems uncanny. This has led 'The Conspirators' into the fall back position of proclaiming and pushing the view that what we warn about does not matter and, less common, that what we warn about is actually a good thing. A few examples will serve illustration: "Race does not exist, and hence the destruction of Races through miscegenation does not matter"; "Religions, Races and Nations cause wars and therefore a materialist, miscegenated, mongrelised, atheistic, One World Super State would be a good thing as there would be no more wars"; and "Tradition, Discipline, Gender and the Family cause hardship and therefore their passing is a good thing." Yet, such propaganda - going so hard against the grain of natural instincts as it does - has been found to alarm all but the most depraved, debauched, venal, stupid or brainwashed people and has subsequently been carefully worded and restricted only to the academic, judicial, journalistic, financial, educational, liberal and political strata of our society - in other words our so-called 'elite'. All that can be said about such simpletons as there are that genuinely believe such tosh is that their hearts do them more credit than their heads. Even so, Carrol Quigley's two books 'Tragedy and Hope' and 'The Anglo-American Establishment' that actually praised the Conspiracy for its methods and its aims, have, after a brief test period, been quietly suppressed, because the books, written in a language-format that was not sufficiently obscurantist, were found to be falling into the wrong hands and 'scaring the cattle'.

"they... plan to destroy Western Civilisation and replace it with a One World order in which an elite few will control the masses conditioned to obey... Habit is the deadliest conditioner of them all. As long as the human mind is confronted with familiar scenes it finds difficulty in believing that anything can be seriously amiss." AK Chesterton 'Facing the Abyss'

The Conspiracy has on the whole relied on habit to inculcate the world's populations into acceptance of the new dispensation. And habits form slowly.

Put a frog in boiling water and he will jump out immediately. Put him in cold water and then heat it up slowly and the frog will stay until he is boiled alive. Sad to say, but humanity en masse, if deprived of its natural leaders and geniuses, is no better than a frog. Ignorance is bliss? Not for very much longer.

A sane, independent, impartial visitor from a far flung galaxy, (or indeed an objective Jew such as Gilad Atzmon), surveying the scene would reason thus; the World is in a mess, particularly the White World, and those who've led it into this mess and who are presiding over its further descent into the mire should be, and will be, held responsible. Crudely put, place blame where blame is due and this means the Jew. The Dreyfus slogan "J'ai accuse...", could be thus paraphrased as "I accuse...the Jews". In other words, the onlooker would predict that the world would soon wake up and then it would be 'pay-back time'. This is what most perceptive Jews realise and dread. This is what the Jewish hierarchy with supreme 'chutzpah' believes it can avoid, or ride-out and survive. Their main contingency planning consists in ever tightening their grip on gentile societies and economies. That and ever more viciously and vindictively persecuting those they view as 'anti-semites'. Such persecution could almost be a definition of chutzpah - in fact I think I'll make it one.

"The definition of 'chutzpah': 'Jews believing that by persecuting 'anti-Semites' they will make those self-same 'anti-Semites' change their views and come to love the Jews.'" - Jez Turner

And yet the world hasn't woken up, and bizarrely this is precisely because the Jews are now SO powerful. They have such a hold on the mass media, academia, the educational establishment, the entertainments industry, the political and legal processes and the manufacture of public opinion in general, that they have been able to create a fantasy world in people's heads that bears not a shred of resemblance to reality. About one person in a hundred thousand understands the full significance of what is happening. The rest are somnambulists in the sunshine. This new world in which we have found ourselves can be termed 'Cosmopolis' and it is a Dreamland necessarily founded on a disease of liberalism. The Conspirators have fostered this disease and foisted it upon us, knowing full well that without it our mental enslavement would be impossible.

"Liberalism... Does not set free, but enslaves the human will, confining its activity within the limits of what is permitted, which means usually all things which paralyse, stultify or degrade, but nothing that would stand athwart the New Barbarian's stampede into chaos. Liberalism... Is partly an induced frame of mind and partly a product of social fatigue which leads its victims to feed on catchwords and slogans in preference to thought. The next step is the basing of policies upon the foundation of Dreamland conjured up by the slogans, which then become false symbols creating a world of total unreality. The denizens of this unreal world are rendered easy prey... As its [Liberalism's] tenets are rarely defined, it has to be judged for the most part by its effects on society."

AK Chesterton 'Facing the Abyss'

Its effects in society are not beneficial, but despite this, while the African, Asian and Oriental Races do seem to be aware or becoming aware of what's going on, the White Race perhaps because of our genetic disposition towards gentleness, fair play, individualism and objectiveness finds it hard to grasp and/or credit the enormity of the situation. We don't like what's happening to Our World, (immigration, feminism, globalism, modern art, modern architecture, the general destruction of all that's good, noble, honourable, healthy, natural and beautiful), in other words we don't like what the Jews are doing to Our World, but we don't realise or believe that it is the Jews that are doing it. Don't, can't or won't. Celine spoke volumes when he said that "Our stupidity is not entirely a matter of credulity, but also a matter of scepticism." White people believe what the Jews tell them, but don't believe what people who know about the Jews, ('anti-semites'), tell them.

Welcome to Cosmopolis!

The Jews have only ever thrived in 'an anything-goes except for common sense, multi-racial mess' and therefore this is what, much to the detriment of and to the eventual extinction of which-ever host population they have recently descended upon, they, on arrival, immediately set about laying the foundations for. In the past when the world was simpler, slower and healthier most host populations were able to encourage the interloper to move on before things became critical. Liberalism however has been a game changer, it has been injected into us in the same way a spider injects a narcotic into its prey to stupify it and so end its struggles, it has paralysed us and clouded our vision and dulled our senses. We no longer see what we should see. Our distant ancestors if they could visit our present society would say that we are mad to put up with what we do put up with and mad to tolerate what is happening to us as normal. Well, a madman sees what a madman sees.

Yet, reality is a harsh, but effective teacher, and pain a proficient persuader of pupils. So, eventually we will wake up, but by then it may be too late to save all but a few scattered remnants of the White race. The rest will go down to fire, and the sword, disease and starvation, and as a result of the racial conflagrations that are destined to drown in blood this overcrowded, disease ridden, increasingly sterile worn-out world. This won't matter much in the greater scheme of things, for from a few thousand White people we can regroup, replenish and refresh our Race and rebuild our Civilisation.

But most of our deep thinkers would like to avoid such a 'gotterdamering' by awaking our Race before the critical point of no return is reached. Knowledge is power and the truth shall set you free, but how does one get this knowledge into people's heads?

In a pre-internet age, the way to reach vast numbers of people was through the written word in newspapers, magazines, periodicals and books. Words and ideas are powerful and can change the world. Bombs explode only once, but books can keep on exploding indefinitely. Books won't reach all, but if the writing is of a sufficient quality the trickle-down effect will ensure that those who don't bother reading will eventually get the message. Even if the writing is suppressed it will find a way through and keep on doing so. You can't keep a good man down. As with the man, so with the writing.

"There is one quality which unites all great and perdurable writers, you don't NEED schools and colleges to keep 'em alive. Put them out of the curriculum, lay them in the dust of libraries, and once in every so often a chance reader, unsubsidized and unbribed, will dig them up again, and put them in the light again, without asking favours." - Ezra Pound 'The ABC of Reading'

With the written word, even in the internet age, unless one has access to the mass media, one has to aim for a tiny fraction of the population at least in the first instance, but even there, and especially for the White race, 'one size does not fit all'.

People are different, they have minds that work in different ways, because they have different mental aptitudes. At a basic level, some have the scientific or technical bent and can be motivated by facts, figures, tables, statistics, graphs and bell curves while others have the artistic outlook and are only inspired to action by emotion aroused by the Humanities - in our Movement the two most influential websites in America The Occidental Observer and 'Counter Currents' reflect this division.

There are sub-divisions again, in that some technically minded people have minds specifically adapted to understanding genetic differences while some people are fired up by understanding the rather abstract stratospheric spheres of high finance and banking, or international politics. Others of a more artistic bent are able to understand the drives of human nature and can therefore grasp the implications of the shadowy world of the secret societies run by the Jews and their Masonic hirelings and ideological dupes. So who is a writer to write for?

On the other hand the overwhelming majority of any population only care about what affects their day-to-day everyday lives - they care about symptoms and not causes, and can only be mobilised once the symptoms or changes become unbearable. Once that begins to happen they want to know who is responsible for it all, and only then do they look for the Causes and indeed the Causers.

Such people are difficult to reach through books, unless the Conspiracy is presented in an easy to digest fictional form as did Graham Greene with 'Gun for Sale', or if it is explained in a way that shows the end result for normal people of the shenanigans in the realms of high level politics and finance.

It is to these people that AK dedicated the final years of his life. Having written the incredibly successful description of The Conspiracy, 'The New Unhappy Lords', (which one of the leading anti-fracking campaigners rates as one of the best books of all time), AK decided that what was needed was to make The Conspiracy relevant for the majority of people by showing them how it was affecting and would affect their work-a-day lives, hence 'Facing the Abyss'. This book, written with panache and great candour over 40 years ago, yet timelessly relevant, provides a survey of how we got into the situation we were then in and what the future would bring. It can be divided into three parts; Firstly how the conspiracy controls individuals and populations by controlling minds, chiefly via the Liberal disease and the corruption of the young; secondly how the conspiracy controls nations and the world by power politics, i.e. by using sheer force of might and cunning; and finally it ends with a call to action in order for us to break the mental, financial and physical chains that enslave us.

The Liberal Disease

Facing the Abyss begins by looking at the virulent disease known as liberalism and how it has been injected into us in order to turn us all into dull, docile, domesticated, feminised cattle all the easier for our ruling elite, the Lords of Misrule to control. It explains how liberalism aims to destroy everything that makes life worthwhile, how it will tolerate nothing that can be rated higher than money, and how it needs to smash Identity in all its forms in order to progress. He casts withering looks at the BBC, the hypocrisy of the USA, the White false guilt complex and our parliamentary politicians, (suspecting that Captain Henry Kirby MP was secretly working for Government Intelligence long before newly released files enabled this to be confirmed by Peter Rushton's painstaking research at the Public Records Office in 2013), and parliamentary democracy.

"... In almost all matters of fundamental policy, and not simply in isolated cases, government of the people by the people for the people is a contrived delusion. A more accurate description today is government for the people by the party bosses for international vested interests. The power structure is such that the dominant internal influences are those closely related to the dominant external influences. They are exercised under cover. Those who exercise them are the Lords of Misrule who increasingly hold the world in thrall." - AK Chesterton 'Facing the Abyss'

What does strike one throughout the book is just how far society has deteriorated since AK's day. What shocked the people at the time is now banally commonplace. And, no doubt what shocks us today, will also seem banal to our grandchildren's children - unless that is we do something to reverse the current trends.

Sex, drugs and rock 'n' roll... and suicide

AK has a fascinating look at the ways in which our young have been brainwashed and turned into spiritless, lethargic, passive, mindless TV watching 'yahoos', an increasing proportion of whom end up sooner or later committing suicide or going on a shooting spree through sheer boredom. Yahoo it must be remembered was not originally an internet provider, but a Swiftian term for a hooligan without any vestige of common sense. Hooligans don't do anything constructive and they certainly do not do anything to prevent enemies dominating our institutions and setting the general tone of modern society. Their sins of omission endanger the White World.

The subversion of our universities, has been a crucial component of The Conspiracy. After all, universities are places that should be citadels of patriotism and culture, they should be bastions of truth, they should be training grounds for the future leaders of our Race. And what have they actually become? Exactly the opposite of what they should be, and exactly the opposite in every conceivable way.

AK hones in on the 1968 well-funded, well-organised worldwide outbreaks of riots, revolutions and dissension that was fronted by student types who could barely organise themselves to get out of bed in the morning or string a sentence together, never mind anything more complex. The Paris student riots of 1968 ostensibly centring around the once prestigious Sorbonne, were actually initiated by a German Jew, Cohn-Bendett, (Now an MEP. Ed.) studying at Nanterre a suburb near Paris who was annoyed that the student authorities didn't provide double beds to students as standard. By a strange quirk of fate, the town of Nanterre, much to the pride of a local gendarme I once asked directions from, now houses the HQ of the French Front National.

Only a naive nerd would believe that such a thing as worldwide outbreak of revolutionary fervour, whether in 1968 or 1848, can 'Just spontaneously happen'. No, these things take preparation, co-ordination, organisation and lots and lots of funding.

The New World Order vs The Empires

The days of Empire have long gone, but it is invaluablely instructive to see how these imperial possessions were subverted into slave states of what became the New World Order. AK Chesterton's attitude to the British Empire, the fondness for which was widespread among British patriots at the time, can be seen as somewhat quixotic to the modern Nationalist who realises that the British Empire could more aptly have been named 'The Rothschild Empire', and that the only thing British about it was the fact that we Britons did all the sweating, fighting and dying for it. To be fair AK was mainly concerned with the White Dominions, the White Commonwealth and White Communities, but was still somewhat concerned too for the fate of the native populations knowing, as he did, that whatever replaced the British Empire would be something far worse, and that whatever it was it would not be genuine Native Nationalist rule for the benefit of the Natives.

A quote from GK Chesterton, AK's cousin, will enlighten. Here Horne Fisher the eponymous hero of a collection of stories entitled 'The Man Who Knew Too Much', makes a comment about Britain's situation in the Middle East. Written in 1922, but still supremely valid today and no doubt it will still be so in 2022.

"It's bad enough that a gang of infernal Jews should plant us here, where there's no earthly English interest to serve, and all hell beating up against us, simply because Nosey Zimmern has lent money to half the Cabinet. It's bad enough that an old pawnbroker from Baghdad should make us fight his battles; we can't fight with our right hand cut off. ...But if you think I am going to let the Union Jack go down and down eternally like the Bottomless Well, down into the blackness of the Bottomless Pit, down in defeat and derision amid the jeers of the very Jews who have sucked us dry - no, I won't, and that's flat; not if the Chancellor were blackmailed by twenty millionaires with their gutter rags, not if Woodville and Carstairs had shares in twenty swindling mines. If the thing is really tottering, God help it, it mustn't be we who tip it over."

There is a drive among some conservative Roman Catholics to make GK Chesterton a Saint, something I'm not very keen on, but after digesting quotes like this I find my resistance rapidly crumbling.

One thing 'Facing the Abyss' makes extremely clear is 'the Capitalist-Communist Nexus', i.e. the massive extent of the funding, economic support and aid given to Communism by 'Western' Capitalism and that this was not only essential to the establishment of the Soviet Union, (e.g. Kuhn Loeb and Co), and its survival through WWII, but that it was continuous and ongoing from the year the USSR was created until its demise in the late 1980's. He makes clear the pivotal role played by Bernard Baruch - 'the most powerful man in America'.

The figures and extent are staggering, and the list of firms involved reads like 'a who's who' of well-known industrial and financial multinationals - General Electric, Krupps, Vickers Armstrong and Westinghouse to name a few. The extent of such aid has been long-known to those, even at relatively low levels, who work in the engineering and mining industries, but, even after the publication of Anthony C. Sutton's books including the seminal 'Western Technology and Soviet Economic Development', the fact that it comes as something of a revelation to most people is a sure indictment of the highly selective reporting of 'our free and fair' Mass Media.

Really, some enterprising lawyer should take it upon himself to bring legal action against these multi-nationals to pay compensation to the millions of victims of Communism. A fine legal mind might even go further and bring action against the media moguls themselves for dereliction of their duty to report the news. Not only has the Fourth Estate consistently refused to report on the involvement of the capitalist multinationals in aiding Communism, they refused to report the true extent of Communist crimes against humanity, and neglected to mention the particular ethnic group to which all the Commissars, Gulag Commandants and leading Communists belonged. I don't see why one couldn't sue the allied governments on behalf of the victims of Yalta.

AK didn't live long enough to see the end of Communism, but he would not have been very impressed with what replaced it. The successive Velvet, not-so-velvet and various coloured 'revolutions' in Eastern Europe have done nothing but to ensure the replacement of Jewish Commissars with Jewish Oligarchs. And rather like referenda on EU membership or Euro currency adoption, if one revolution does not completely bring about what the Jews want, they will keep on having them until one does, e.g. Egypt in 2013 and Ukraine in 2014. Byelorussia, Transdnistrie and Russia, the three European countries still not part of the New World Order, can expect troublesome times ahead.

Which brings us to NATO, supra-national agencies, NGOs and the USA's hypocrisy, all of which come in for a much needed mauling under AK's incisive mind.

"... regarding NATO is clear that the function of the treaty organisation is to enable the senior partner to dominate junior partners and deprive them of their capacity to protect their own interests."

AK Chesterton 'Facing the Abyss'

Obvious really, like many profound insights actually are. And while he criticises America he differentiates between the power elite and ordinary Americans who are as much a victim of Americanism as the rest of the world is.

"... The American peoples themselves might be encouraged to make their second Declaration of Independence this time of the Wall Street usurers who subvert and pervert the traditional European values and who are as great a menace to freedom in the United States as they are everywhere else." AK Chesterton 'Facing the Abyss'

The Final Proof of the Conspiracy - Israel

'Facing the Abyss' was and is a brave attempt to enlighten the general public as to the grave danger in allowing themselves to be ruled by an alien people who, to put it mildly, do not have our best interests at heart. Yet, despite all the best efforts of AK and others, there still remain those of our Race who desperately wish to avoid 'blaming the Jews' and who conduct contortuous mental gymnastics in an effort to explain away or make allowances for the steady accumulation of Jewish power and the steady worsening condition in all parts of the world under its sway.

"The individual is handicapped by coming face to face with a conspiracy so monstrous he cannot believe it exists."

J. Edgar Hoover (ex-Director of the FBI)

Sometimes, one has to ask oneself, what, if anything, would ever convince such people? Perhaps revealing the secret protocols of the plotters themselves? Perhaps. "The fault lies not in the Jews, but in ourselves" is a common cry. Perhaps, but perhaps the fault that lies in ourselves is our inability to prevent the Jews from owning and controlling everything worth owning and controlling, linked as it is with our individualist, non-collectivist constituent psychological inability to blame the Jews for the resultant deterioration in our own situation and its ensuing chaos. Perhaps, nothing would ever convince such people. Other explanations and excuses put forward include: 'accident'; 'coincidence', economic forces' and 'Globalism'. But all these arguments can be easily swept away with one word, and that word is - Israel. Jewish power and influence don't exist or don't matter? Go tell that to the Palestinians.

No economic necessity created Israel, neither did chance or accident. Israel is not politically, legally, ethnically or economically viable and exists and survives, only because the worldwide Jewish network is able to exert pressure, (media, financial, political, governmental, etc), to establish, support and subsidize it. In other words the same Jewish network that brought Israel into being, now ensures it survives. In return Israel does all that is necessary and all it can through diplomatic pressure and its worldwide network of embassies, through Mossad, and through other tools that a Nation State is able to wield, to support this support network and generally aid Jewish interests and aims worldwide.

A network that is capable of doing all this, is capable of doing a lot of other things too, and bear in mind it is always easier to corrupt, subvert, weaken, enslave and destroy than it is to create or strengthen. A Jewish Conspiracy? Call it what you will, but a plague by any other name is still a plague.

Tomorrow

"Thus far we have seen something of the influences at work to subvert the society handed down to us by our forefathers through hundreds of years of trial and effort. ...As I see the future of the world, only peoples prepared to defend their values at whatever cost will survive as sovereign entities. ...To remain under attack without the will to counter-attack is to invite defeat, and what sort of world would it be if the White nations were indeed defeated? ...Of course there is danger. Danger is inherent in life. But the best safeguards against it are boldness and determination... Victory is for the brave of heart and the tough in spirit. ...Our people want something better - the dream of men through all the ages." AK Chesterton 'Facing the Abyss'

The day has ended in disgrace, distress and dismay.

The Conspiracy exists. The Conspiracy matters because it is slowly exterminating us. And it matters because it is only possible to save ourselves if we first understand the Conspiracy itself.

In the long run, to fight effectively it is important to know who you are fighting.

AK Chesterton selflessly devoted his life to providing hope and leadership to our people. Our people's morale is at an all-time low. There are very dark days ahead and in these coming times our folk will need more than ever the sort of hope and leadership that AK embodied.

We are Facing the Abyss.

Let us take up AK's challenge. Let us dare to dream of something better. This world can be a much better place. This world belongs to us if we can prove ourselves worthy of it. So let us prove ourselves worthy of it. Let us prove ourselves worthy.

Let us leap across the abyss into the glory of a brighter new tomorrow..

The following article is from PLAIN ENGLISH, April 2, 1921, No. 39. - Vol. II. Edited by Lord Alfred Douglas. Several times over the years in Candour I have written on the fanatical efforts of the Jews to build the 3rd Temple on the Mount in Jerusalem and inaugurate the One World Religion. See Candours Sept/Oct 1996 and March 2001.

"No Temple for Sir Alfred Mond.

Sir Alfred Moritz Mond (of the English Review, vide article entitled "Blasphemy, Bolshevism and Bestiality," in PLAIN ENGLISH for August 14th, 1920), has at last let the cat out of the bag about Zionism. We now know from Sir Alfred Mond's own lips that one of the principal objects of the Jews in returning* to Palestine is to re-build the Temple at Jerusalem. This they will never be allowed to do. Our Lord prophesied that the Temple would be destroyed and that not one stone would be left upon another. The prophecy was fulfilled in the most completely literal sense, for not only was the Temple razed to the ground but the foundations were rooted out, and the land on which it had stood was ploughed up by the Emperor Titus. In the year of our Lord 362, Julian the Apostate, with a deliberate design of showing his contempt for the Christianity which he had abandoned, sent enormous gangs of workmen to Jerusalem for the purpose of re-building the Temple. All the might of the Roman Empire could not accomplish the task. Earthquakes threw down the building as fast as it was erected and "balls of fire" came up out of the earth and drove the terrified workmen away. The attempt was abandoned and Julian himself died in the follow ing year. It is noteworthy that Gibbon the historian, sceptic as he was, records this historic fact and leaves it without any attempt at a rationalistic explanation. What Julian the Apostate failed to do will not be accomplished by Mr. Arthur Balfour, the supposed author of the celebrated "Balfour Declaration" (really it was dictated to Mr. Balfour by Achad Ha'am, the rabbi of Tring Park, the residence in Bucks of Lord Rothschild). The whole "Zionist" movement is the outcome of the same spirit of apostasy and of hatred and contempt for Christianity as that which animated the Emperor Julian. Its downfall is as inevitable now as it was sixteen hundred years ago."

The Syrians are fighting with every thing they have to defeat the Zionist organised and financed by the USA ISIS Islamic terrorists. Did you ever wonder how they appeared from nowhere? How all that American hardware suddenly fell into their hands as the 'Iraqi' military collapsed apart in front of them.

It is reportedly alleged that real European volunteers are now flocking to the Syrian cause and being trained.

SONGS OF EMPIRE

Jerusalem

From "Milton" by William Blake

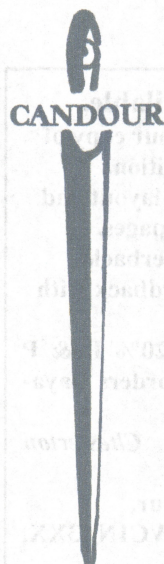

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon England's mountains green?
And was the holy lamb of God
On England's pleasant pastures seen?

And did the Countenance Divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among these dark Satanic Mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds, unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!

I will not cease from mental fight,
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand,
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and pleasant land

Editorial

That Candour favours The Conspiracy as opposed to the easier options of stars crossing or a tarot version of events should not be surprising. There is tradition and there is fashion.

When Miss. Rosine de Bounevalle, our much loved and missed previous editor and direct successor to AK, and myself, Colin Todd, selected by Rosine as her successor, founded the AK Chesterton Trust we were very aware that the enemy, in various guises was in our very midst and indeed sometimes in our very home.

We rallied our very limited resources toward the end of Miss. De Bounevalle's life and determined on a course of action. That was survival first.

Survival first:

Three editors in sixty one years tells its own tale. A small, tight, team has again formed around Candour. After the death of Miss. Rosine de Bounevalle, on Christmas Eve 1999, I was on my own for a few years. I kept going and new and old comrades rallied. Some people I used to know became just that. People I once knew.

The 'nationalist' parties wax and wane as they are meant to. The state maggots did and do what they are there for.

Destroying morale and breaking hearts.

We have seen them come and go. And will continue to do so. We are getting more issues out. This is our fourth thus far this year. So phase two was growth. You can judge that by our publishing efforts and the great website.

AK was not infallible but he got it right a lot more than he got it wrong.

There seems to be a growing tendency to 'rubbish' the whole notion of possible conspiracy theories and those who may tend toward them. The Trimmers are at it again.

Who can deny that Zionism is a gigantic conspiracy? Or perhaps it too is the result of a series of 'accidents' that just happened to end in yet another pre-planned result.

Read AK's The New Unhappy Lords or Facing the Abyss and decide for yourself whether what we are staring in the face is conspiracy or not.

Our growing subscription list worldwide tells me AK's message and Candour are hitting the right notes.

Colin Todd.
Editor.

Shakespeare Said...

Candour 854 quoted Shakespeare in saying that this island is "a fortress built by nature for herself against infection and the hand of war"; why then does the Government's Emergency Committee, chaired in the Prime Minister's absence by the Foreign Secretary, have to issue dire warnings about the threat of ebola? Britons seldom set foot in the relevant areas of the affected countries, so the threat is a direct result of the immigration and nationality laws Candour has always opposed because they are physically, medically, morally and culturally damaging to the health of the British people.

This danger is not natural for us it is manmade.

Candour says end it now -turn back the 'planes.

Out! Out! Out!

Hereward More.

The Lord of the World?

A.K. Chesterton

Originally from Candour Vol. XLVI, No. 2, Feb. 1994.

The following explains the use of the particular photograph used, in full colour, on the front cover of our new (2nd) Edition of A.K. Chesterton's Facing the Abyss.

"Robert Hugh Benson's Lord of the World was an exciting and informative novel set at the end of the twentieth century and covering the period leading into the reign of the Anti-Christ and culminating with Our Lord's Second Coming. Although written in 1907, much of what the author prophesied has already become reality. Archbishop Fulton Sheen regarded it as one of the three great apocalyptic pieces of literature dealing with the advent of the Satanic era.

Benson's prophetic view of a world under the suzerainty of Satan was no idle vision. Mindful of this, we were intrigued by a postcard sent to us showing a view of the world as allegedly seen by the Apollo 17 crewmen during the journey toward the Moon on their 1969 mission.

Are we alone in detecting the image of Satan amid the swirls of cloud? See what you eyes can detect of the physiognomy of the World Conqueror."

I was first shown the interpretation of this view of the world by two League of Empire Loyalist stalwarts, Miss. Moyna Traill-Smith and Miss. Rosine de Bouneville, and being slow on the uptake, did not for a day or two, see what they were telling me was there. When I did get it. Boy! It is everywhere. It is a favourite of the BBC for example.

Maybe, though some of us are just CONSPIRACY nuts!

If you begin to look for this exact 'photograph' you will find that it is used everywhere. The BBC use it. The newspapers use it. It appears in advertisements. Start looking and please send reports of where you have seen it or better cuttings, etc.

THE HISTORY OF THE LEAGUE OF EMPIRE LOYALISTS AND CANDOUR ROLL OF HONOUR

The following have sent £25.00 each as contributions to the appeal for funds to help finance Rob Black's forthcoming book on the history of The League of Empire Loyalists and Candour which is scheduled for publication 31st October.

A big thank you to those who have supported this fine effort thus far. I understand that some can afford more than others.

We need at least 5 more of you to step up to the line. That way we can buy the rights to some more great unseen before photographs of the LEL in action. They had courage almost beyond belief. The quality of the activists is something we must be aiming for again.

Looking at the list I have to say that I am disappointed thus far with the UK response.

Again and again our enemies have written 'our' history for us and 'our' people queue around the block to buy the expensive, repetitive and ill-informed crap. Now that one of our own makes a great effort (and sacrifice which he won't like me saying) an outbreak of short arms and deep pockets disease seems to have broken out. Shame! But not on the following....

A. Ryan (Eire)

Max Cunningham(USA)

Gordon Stridiron (England)

Colin Todd (England)

Richard D. (USA)

+ 2 new people in one day since this began to circulate.

Each of the previously unreleased photographs we use from the newspaper archives costs us £67.50 for the rights. Rob is being very selective and 3 or 4 of these will make a big difference to the professional look of the book.

I am REALLY looking forward to this book and hope you are too.

Help Rob out with a donation of £25.00 and be included in the Roll of Honour at the front of the book. Your name or a nom de guerre of your choice.

Rob Black has uncovered previously unknown facts from archives as far flung as South Africa and Chile.

Send your donation payable to;

The A.K. Chesterton Trust at:

BM Candour, London, WC1N 3XX, England.

9 names now and counting!

STAMPS

A great way of helping us would be to buy an extra book of stamps (1st or 2nd UK obviously) the next time you buy one for yourself and send it to us. It all helps!

Using quotations from the Old & New Testaments, the Qur'an, the ABC of Communism and Mein Kampf, the book shows how religious and political radicalism spring from the same source.

From radical Muslims and Jews, the far right and left and Christianity. It is why mass immigration and multiculturalism will end in disaster.

DONATIONS

We are having a very busy year and want to finish it as strongly as we possibly can given our extremely thinly spread resources. At the time of writing this I am without the internet or email because I had insufficient funds to cover the Direct Debits. With this issue, the fourth so far this year and I think our largest output for some 16 years (!) I appeal for those who have not donated thus far in 2013/14 to lift some of the weight from those who help and donate on a regular basis.
